Welcome to Planet Hemka!

Somewhere in the seamlessly never-ending Lunaverse, lies a nice little planet with two (literal) mountain sized bunny ears called Planet Hemka; the birthplace of those funny, squishy, and lovable gumdrop shaped bunnies; the Hemkaius Lunar Cuniculuses. AKA: The Hemkas. The best place to see a Hemka is a small quaint little city of a village (and our main setting for our show) named Hemka Valley, founded and created by the very first Hemka ever to exist: The Legendary Rainbow Hemka! In fact, every-Hemka loves and adores the Rainbow Hemka, but only a few knows where they disappeared to, or if they really exist! But Hemka Valley is still a very calm and peaceful place with purplish-blue skies, cyanish-light blue grass, a Rainbow Hemka shaped water fountain and the very popular diner, The Brownie Hut, home of the Hemkas' favorite food: Brownies!

Yes, they CAN speak English (they just choose not to in front of the non-Hemkas in "Hañazüki: Full of Treasure), Yes, there ARE female Hemkas, and YAS, the show takes place BEFORE our main Hemkas moved to Hanazuki's Moon and met the bubbly, perky and cheerful Moonflower and her friends and stopped The Big Bad, so the Hemkaa have no idea that the powerful Moonflowers that that heard so many stories about aren't just a story, but they DO know that The Big Bad has yet to find their home planet, which is VERY good, and want to keep it that way.

But the main point is that, Hemka Valley is the most peaceful, beautiful and tranquil place to visit. Or it was, until the Stuntly Step-Brothers showed up.

But first, let us explain how and why the Stuntlies first moved to Hemka Valley.

WELCOME TO BLAND-BERG
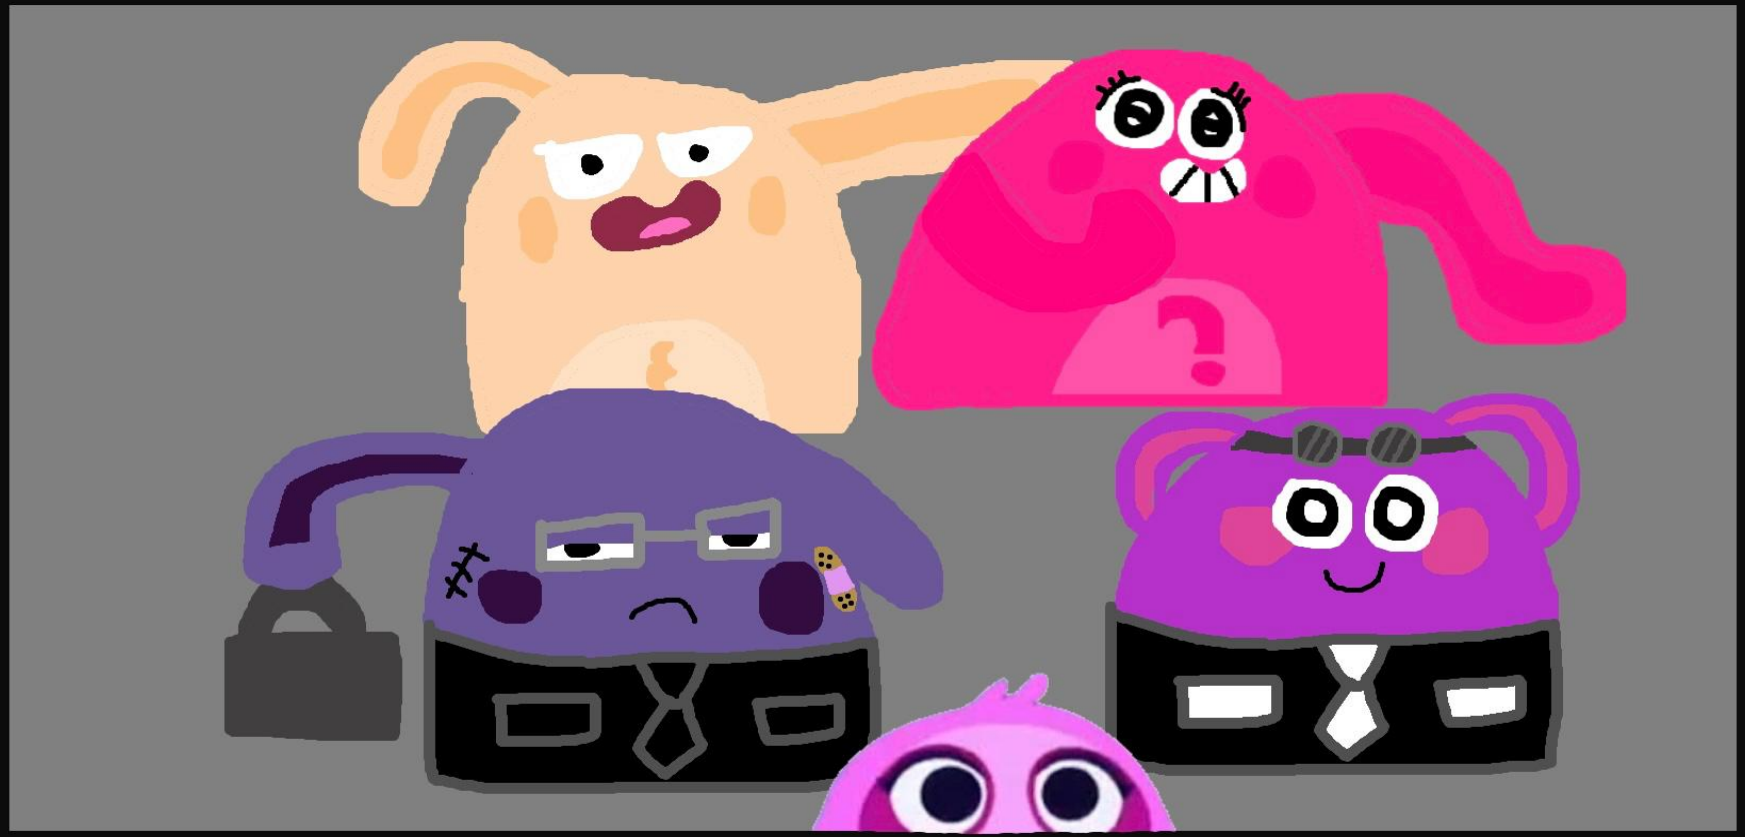
THE MOST BUSINESS FILLED PLACE IN THE LUNAVERSE.

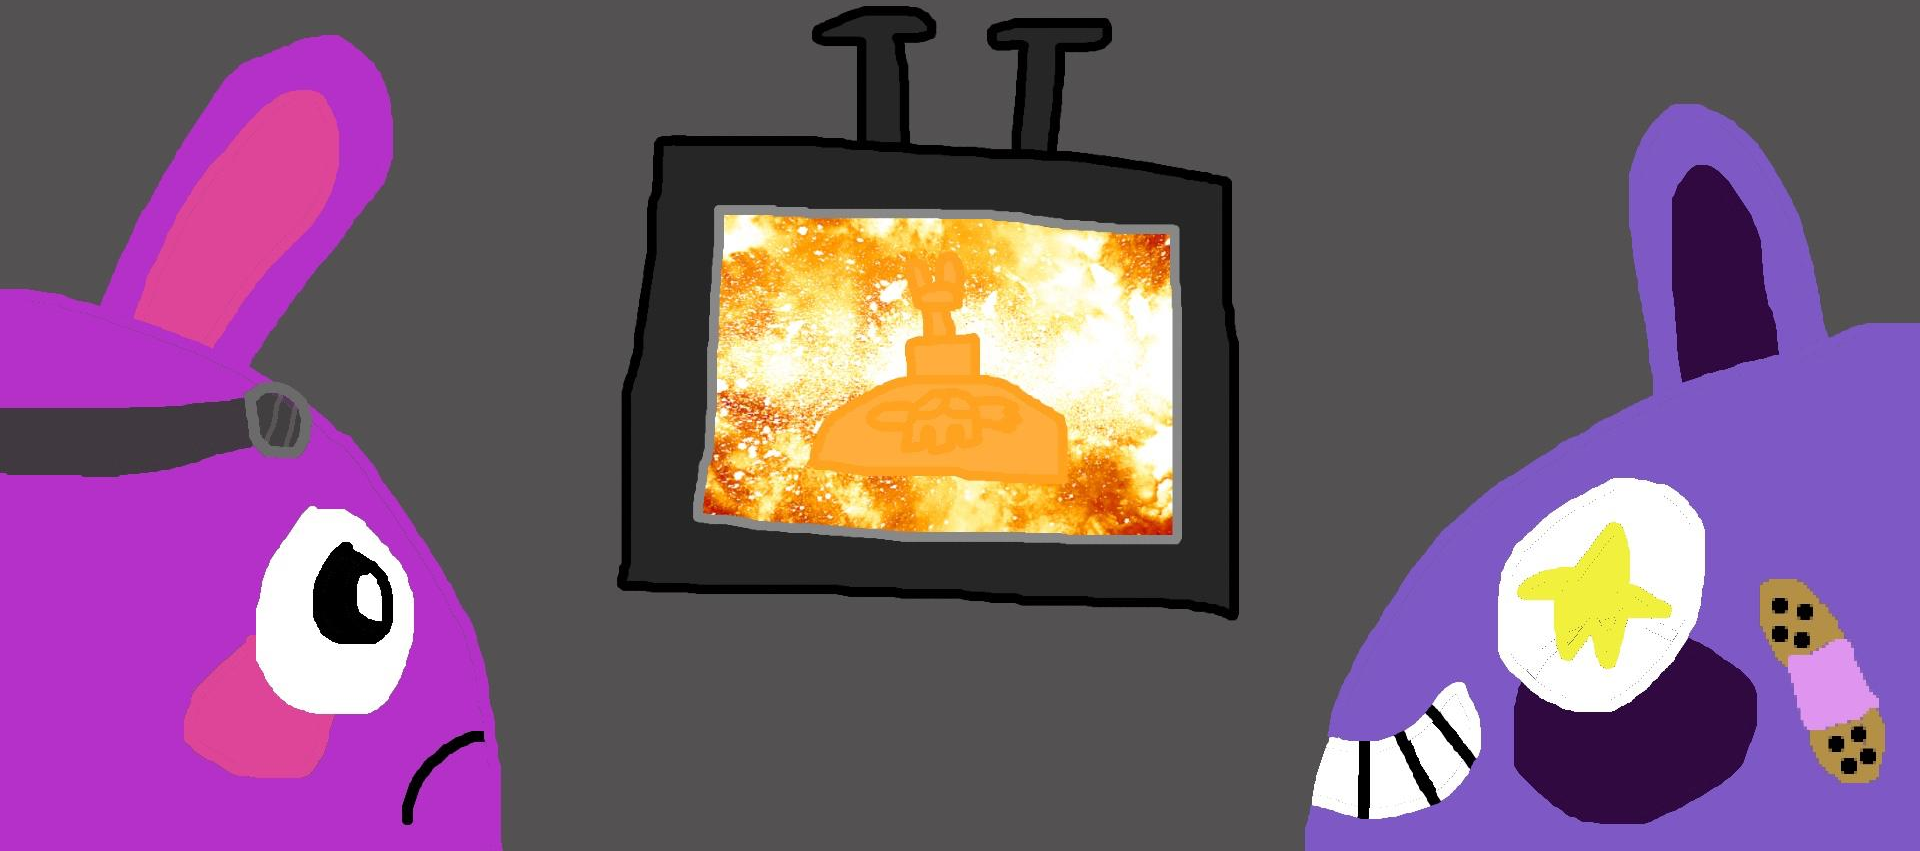


And so it begins

Founded by Sir Vinnie Von Blandsworth V, Bland-Berg is nothing less than a business inspired town filled with no colors (except black, white and grey), square buildings, one too many business filled offices and, believe it or not, bland corporate (and color-less) Hemkas who LOVE any type of bland, boring and dull business and spending time practicing their typing for their cubicles at their jobs. In fact, the only thing remotely interesting about Bland-Berg is the only colorful Hemkas who live there: The Stuntly family. Peach Stuntly (Purple's Dad & Lavender's Step-Dad) is a bit of a worrywart who works 9 to 5 at Bland-Corp and only drinks the BLACKEST of dark roast coffee, Rose Cleverson-Stuntly (Lavender's Mom and Purple's Step-Mom) is a peppy stay at home mom who loves her kids and has trouble NOT wondering about the world around her, but this story really begins with the most unlikely step-brothers ever born: Purple & Lavender. And their Adorable (yet gross) pet Slooth-wala; Mr. Squishypants.

Like all Bland-Berg Hemkas, Lavender always enjoyed the same old predictable routine, and sharing his genius with the world, and the Bland-Berg Hemka just ADORED his business themed inventions because it help them work less, so they can have time to talk about business and bland grey-ness. But, oddly enough, the only Hemka in Bland-Berg who HATED living there was Purple (Mr. Squishypants wasn't too crazy about living there, either). Unlike all the other Bland-Berg Hemkas, Purple always thought that working 9 to 5, looking at, eating, drinking, and even breathing the same colorless blandness, and thinking and talking about anything business was dull, lame, and of course, BORING!!! In fact, Purple just KNEW that he was destined for something more than just typing numbers and letter into a dull grey computer while wearing a black work uniform (Lavender wore a white one) like all the other Bland-Berg Hemkas. He just had trouble figuring out WHAT it was. Until one late night, a HV (the Hemkas' version of a TV) commercial changed the step-brothers' and pet Slooth-wala's life; FOREVER.

The HV (Hemka-vision) Ad That Changed Everything



ROCKET MACHOPANTS:

STUNT HEMKA LEGEND

Likes: Stunts, Danger, Spicy Meat Wraps

Hates: Dullness, Being bored, The word: “Lame”

Number of stunts done: 1 Million

Favorite Color: Flaring Orange

Hometown: Danger Peak Zone

Hemka Power: Becoming a Fireball

Signature Hem-formation: Blazing Bomb

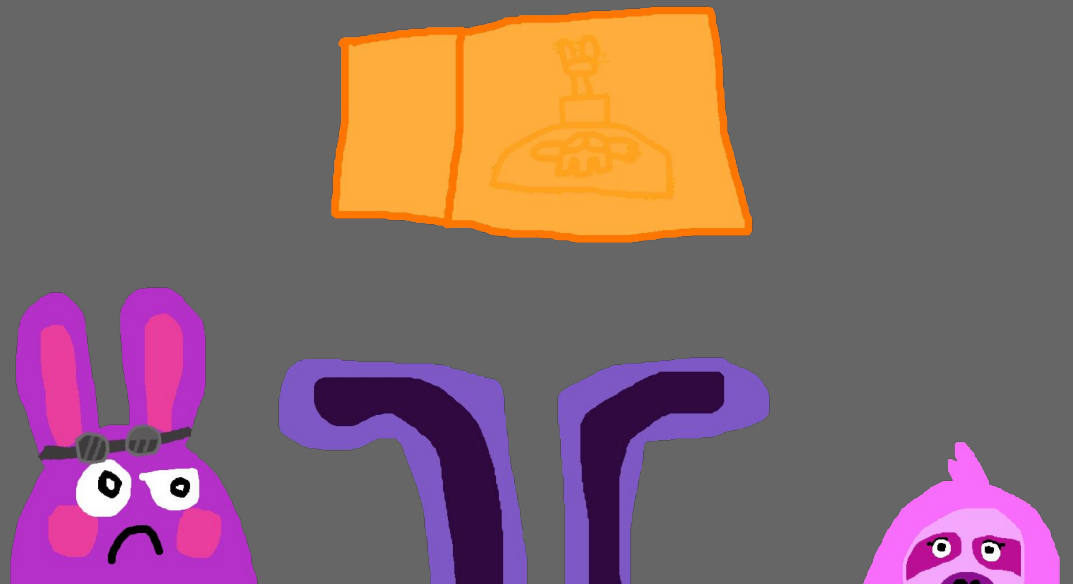
Fun Fact: Claims he wears the eyepatch because of a extra dangerous stunt, but really, he wears it because it’s so cool!

Info: Born a ordinary, simple Hemka, Rocket was just a wimpy Hemka who let EVERYONE (even nerds!) took advantage of him, until one day, after seeing an action packed movie, he decided to become the stunting legend he is today.

He spends most his days performing death-defying stunts, fearlessly, as he thinks about what is next stunt should be. In fact, he done literally EVERY KIND OF STUNT know to Hemka-kind! He moto-jumped every canyon, walked every tightrope, and even fought every Mazzadril there is!

But he has yet to retire, and is still coming up with one-of-a-kind stunts, which inspired Purple Stuntly to be the leader of his own one-of-a-kind stunt team, that which he is MORE than sure that his idol would just love.

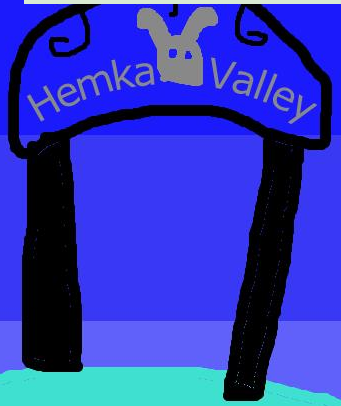
Inspired by his new found hero, Purple ripped off his Bland and kinda ugly outfit, used Lavender's college fund to buy "The Machopants Stuntiversary Starter Pack for Newbies: Extra Danger Edition", waited until the next morning to get and rip open the package like it was a Moonmas (The Lunaverse's version of Christmas) present, and then after placing ALL of the biggest (and only) collection of Rocket Machopants merchandise ever in his room, watching the Machopants Stuntiversary dvd included 27 times on fast forward and in Spanish (don't ask…) and trying out a training version of his new idol's first ever stunt: "THE LOOP-DE-JUMP OF DOOM!", Purple J. Stuntly was SO ready to begin his newfound stunting career! But somehow, something was missing.,.



That's why he had his step-bro build a GIANT version of "THE LOOP-DE-JUMP OF DOOM!" so all of Bland-Berg can see it. But during the re-creation of the Machopants' first stunt: "KABLAMMO!" Went the statue (Purple accidentally crashed into it, by the way). Enraged and totally annoyed at the wannabe stunter for destroying their beloved statue, the mayor of Bland-Berg decreed that our 3 main stars are now SO BANNED from Bland-Berg, for life (Purple, because he broke the statue, Lavender, because he built the inaccurate ramp, and the Slooth-wala, because he peed in the town fountain, just to be with his favorite owners. (Awwww!))!

But instead of punishing the 3 for getting into more trouble than before (even for them!), the step-parents decided to use this as a excuse to FINALLY get Purple out of the house so he can get a (business-y) job (kinda weird, but hey, still beats getting grounded, right?). Yes, they WERE that desperate (kinda sad, really…). So after an heartfelt goodbye, packing their stuff, and exploring their (former) hometown one last time, Purple felt happy (again) and truly colorful for the first time in his entire (formerly) sad and pathetic life, and proud that he finally got the see the rest of the (Hemka) world! Lavender felt way more than just a little homesick, (did we say a little?) and both cheesed and thankful at his only step-brother that actually wanted to get him out of the house, but didn't had a good (or fun) reason, yet. Mr. Squishypants felt… well, mostly hungry for more Plantnanas (plantains + bananas). But most importantly, the Stuntly step-parents found the perfect place for them to start their own business career.

HEMKA VALLEY!



And that’s when all the peacefulness ended, and our story REALLY began!

SUPEREXTREME
STUNT TEAM
Diva

After getting banned from their hometown, Step-brothers Purple & Lavender Stuntly, along with their pet Slooth-wala, Mr. Squishypants, are forced to live in Hemka Valley where they meet and team up with glamorous yet tough perfume model, Teal Glitterson, her cowardly paranoia filled boyfriend, Lime Chiller and the lovable 3rd wheel of the two, Yellow Sunnybeam, to become the next most AWESOME (but unlikely) team of “Stunt Hemkas & Slooth-wala” and perform one million stunts (that felt like good ideas at the time) to reach the same amount of Stuntosity-ness as Rocket Machopants, so they can become famous, well respected & adored (or in Teal’s case, even MORE than famous, well respected & adored), AND help Purple fulfill his new dream: Be the first (and probably only) leader of the world’s (soon-to-be) famous team of Stunt Hemkas & Slooth-wala!

And every 7 minute episode ends with our heroes proudly saying;

“HEMKA POWER!”

Purpleton “Purple” Jerome Stuntly: The Leader/Muscles

Likes: Yelling, Smashing stuff, Explosions, Scatting and the super cute Pink Lovensmooch

Hates: Rules, Blandness, Logic, Math, Veggies (EW!)

Catchphrase: “KA-BLAMMO!”

Job: Leader/Self Proclaimed Totally Handsome Prankster of the S.E.M.S.T.

Hometown: Bland-Berg

Hemka Power: Super Strength

Signature Hem-formation: Thundercloud Of Justice!

Fun Fact: He got his scar after a razor incident, but says it’s from fighting a 4 headed Mazzadrill.

Info: Loud, proud, and a little more than TOO crazy, like a jackhammer on a permanent sugar rush, you’d think he has adreadline for blood! If there’s at least one dangerous thing Purple hasn’t done yet, he’s the first to do it! He’s on an never-ending mission to live life to the fullest by any means possible, he even speaks in a thick manly Brooklyn accent to prove it, too! He’ll try the spiciest hot sauce, devour the sourest fruit and even press that one button just to see what it does! Yep, Purple is ALL about dreaming and doing the BIG things no-Hemka in their right mind would even dream of doing, then finding a way to make it more extreme as possible!

Unfortunately, there’s just one problem, even though he acts like a man’s man and smells even manlier, Purple is a nothing but your typical “man-baby” of a frat boy with just a few screws short of a drawer (if, um, you know what we mean…) who has no idea what he’s doing half the time, meaning he ALWAYS jumps in head first before looking, or even before knowing why he’s jumping in the first place! Purple likes to live his life at his favorite speed and volume: FAST AND LOUD! Like an action movie that he wants to skip ahead toward the good stuff! Which usually land him and friends in some seriously deep doo-doo. For instance, whenever he thinks a stunt “ain’t” awesomely extreme enough, he’ll make more stupid dangerous then it should be! Or if he sees an act of unfairness, he’ll go towards all lengths (and even widths!) to make sure every-Hemka gets treated fairly, even if it means totally destroying the town every now and then, but, hey! You can’t make justice happen without breaking a few buildings, right?

Luckily, he has Lavender and his own “Stunt-tastic” team to help him realize that there’s always a SIMPLE solution and to (hopefully) NOT go overboard, A LOT. And when Purple finally realizes how badly he screwed up, he puts all of his power, skill and even his (very limited) brain power he has to fix another of his many, many, MANY, mistakes and learn something new about leadership along the way, not that he remembers it for long, but still! He also has a habit of scatting mid-sentence. KA-BLAMMO!

Lavandula “Lavender” James Ivan Quantum Cleverson-Stuntly: The Brains

Likes: Science, Inventing, Tea

Hates: Rust, Purple’s lack of discipline, Filth

IQ Level: Way too high to count

Job: Inventor of all stunting equipment for the S.E.M.S.T.

Hometown: Bland-Berg

Hemka Power: Supreme Intelligence

Signature Hem-formation: Brain Of Punishment!

Fun Fact: He’s the only 7 year old in Hemka Valley with a certificate for, well, any type of sciencey stuff.

Info: Purple might be the Leader of the Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team, but every-Hemka knows that his younger step-bro the one who does Super Extreme genius work around here, right? Somewhat shy but clever, Lavender is a bright and talented young man who’s always polite, always respectful and always willing to do any type of work (and has a habit of calling people by their extended first name), which can be a bit annoying to all the other Hemkas, but he’s too busy being the perfect example of self discipline to worry about what normal kids want. Oh! And despite his age, he is a total super intelligent genius.

When he’s not in his lab, tinkering with anything he can get his hands, er… ears on, he’s usually seen making inventions to change Hemka-kind, like a toaster with an built in blender/microwave/ice cube maker setting (Ice Cold Coffee Smoothie, any-Hemka?), or a Hemka shaped frisbee that can track the drool of any creature and then find said creature, or even an umbrella that not only keep you dry but, also doubles as a ears-free heater! And when he’s not doing that, he’s usually seen building whatever his older step-brother needs for their next stunt, yet again (not that he’s STILL a little bitter at him for getting them banned from their own hometown or anything…) He also hopes that their stepparents NEVER finds out that him, Purple and their beloved Mr. Squishypants are still in the “stunting biz” instead of doing some classic Bland-Berg business work, for if they did; Goodbye Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team!

You see, both Purple and Lavender have the perfect example of a classic “I-love-you/Shut-up” relationship, Purple wishes Lavender wasn’t so scientific (which means he doesn’t believe in mythical creatures that are ACTUALLY real) and into boring stuff all the time, while “Lavie” wonder how HE is the younger stepbrother, and yet Purple’s the one who act all childish while HE has to act overly mature for his age for his older stepbrother. No wonder he wants a step-sister so badly! But don’t let their differences fool you, those two love each other almost as much as they love their pet Slooth-wala. And THAT is saying something.

Tealsworth “Teal” Glamourmönd Glitterson: The Beauty and Tough Chick

Likes: Makeup, Bubblegum, Herself (who wouldn’t?)

Hates: Doing any type of labor, getting dirty, Purple’s lack of brain power (IF he has any, that is)

Number of Hemka dated: 300

Job: Glamorous Camerawoman of the S.E.M.S.T.

Hometown: Crystal Mountain-City, but lived in Hemka Valley the longest

Hemka Power: Invisibility

Signature Hem-formation: Swan Of Beauty!

Fun Fact: She knows Hemka-Fu, Hem-rate, Hem-Jit-Ju, and many other Hemka martial arts.

Info: Take all the sass and powerful tough love of Wanda Sykes, the charm of a runway model and the fighting skills of Jackie Chan, (but better!) put them into the body of a limbless gumdrop shaped bunny, and you got Teal Glitterson: Perfume Advertising Model and second oldest daughter of the richest family in Hemka Valley that could make Ebenezer Scrooge jealous, which is probably why the only thing bigger than the number of amount of jewelry and gems she has is her planet sized ego.

She might be a (EXTREMELY) good looking diva with a beautifully flirty personality and that good old feminine charm, but make no mistake! Teal is no ordinary independent woman, she could take on a thousand Moon Widow with both ears behind her back if she wanted to, and she takes her role as the sole independent female of the Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team, not as serious as Purple wants her to, but can you really blame her? Teal would rather lay around her favorite lounge chair, with a built in strap so she can make her boyfriend, Lime, carry her around while she admire herself in the mirror, instead of record her “Macho Boss’s” stupid yet surprisingly cool looking stunts. Doesn’t Purple understand that phones are for taking selfies and texting, not recording crazy dangerous stunts?

Yes, Teal IS a little lazy, and yes, she IS also extremely sarcastic and sassy as she is fabulous, but when someone stupid enough tries to hurt her “dimwitted besties”, especially if said someone makes her “Limey-Poo” sad (even when she reeeeally doesn’t want to), Teal WILL stand up for her Super Extreme Macho Teammates and give whoever messed with them a serious beating and then some. Which proves that Teal actually likes her friends more than she would ever admit. After hitting her leader, Purple, with a buttload of “I-Told-You-So’s” and sick burns, that is. Just make sure you stay on her good side, and you got one fabulously powerful ally on your side! Now, who wants an autograph?

Limeford “Lime” Craven Jordan Edward Horatio Von-Chiller III: The Loveable Coward

Likes: Hiding, Safety, His friends, especially his girlfriend; Teal Glitterson! Hey, opposites attracts

Hates: Scary stuff, Evilness, Danger, His friends, especially his girlfriend; Teal Glitterson in danger, the BAD kind

Favorite Sound: Bubble Wrap popping

Job: Safety Inspector of the S.E.M.S.T.

Hometown: Prickle Woods

Hemka Power(s): Running Away at Super High Speeds and Sonic Screaming

Signature Hem-formation: Safety Sheep Of Sheepness!

Fun Fact: He once hid inside of Orange one time. Once.

Info: There’s scared, there’s really worried, there’s totally terrified, and then there’s Lime Chiller. This poor guy is afraid of basically everything and anything and has a habit of stuttering like Porky Pig, the slightest loud noise is enough to make him jump out the picture and behind a Hemka (usually his “Tealie-Wealie-Pop” girlfriend) or inside an object, and he’s not so bad at running in fear. In fact, he’s pretty good at it! So you can imagine how much of an opportunity to turn the wimpy coward into a not-so wimpy coward Purple saw when he first met Limey, here.

Lime, more than happy to conquer his fears, joined Purple’s awesome stunt team, mostly because Lime just KNEW Purple and the rest of the stunt team needed a safety expert on the job, and who knows safety better than a guy who scared of his own, and other Hemkas’, shadows? Too bad that poor cowardly Lime is the first (and only) Stunt Hemka to give up and blame himself so his friends don’t have to blame themselves, which encourages Purple to be more willing to NOT give up even more! Like if Lime thinks he’s bad at drawing because of one simple mistake, his friends will cheer their wimpy friend up by teaching it’s OK to make mistakes (within reason) and make him draw again, and what do you know?! Lime is now good at drawing and has only himself and his pals to thank for that!

He’s also the only Hemka more sensitive than Blue is, meaning the slightest mean word or heartwarming moment is enough to make Lime burst into tears and cry out his emotion, making him the most vulnerable and emotional member of the Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team. But the best thing about being Hemka-pals with Lime is that he’s always there for his friends! Even if he’s hiding behind the curtains.

Yellow Ferdinand Sunnybeam: The Heart

Likes: EVERYTHING!

Hates: Almost nothing!

Greatest Achievement: Once made Red smile. Barely..

Job: Cheerleader/Pep Talker/1# Supporter of the S.E.M.S.T.

Hometown: Lightweight Desert

Hemka Power: Blinding Smile

Signature Hem-formation: False Teeth Of Happiness!

Fun Fact: His favorite days? Moodday (Monday) and Friday!

Info: Yellow is a simple Hemka with simple means: Be happy. All. The. Dang. Time. Which is why he was the first to say “YES!” When Purple asked him, Lime and Teal to joins his stunt crew. And even since, he brings nothing but optimism and positivity to nearly EVERYTHING the Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team does. No wonder Purple loves this guy!

This peppy little fella’s so busy being so dang happy all the time, that he often gets saved the other Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team members from his own blind cheerfulness. A LOT. He can also be quite gullible at time, like the time he thought that the Hemkas’ worst (and evilest) enemies; the Dreadlings, could change and be good, and boy, was he EVER wrong for thinking that…

He’s also the type of friend to support you no matter how much you don’t need it, giving him the type of feeling that he might know his teammates better than THEY do! He loves that Purple never ever ever ever EVER gives up, even if he has no idea what the “Ka-Blam-Heck” he’s doing. He loves that Lavender keeps a close eye on his friends (especially Purple) so his reckless step-brother doesn’t turn them into rotten fruit again, and the other on their mascot/pet Slooth-wala, just to make sure he’s happy. He loves that Teal is used to the finer things in life, like fancy caviar and her smart diamond encrusted house that takes care you if you’re good, and beats you into mush if you’re bad, and kicking some Dreadling butt at the same time. He loves that Lime loves keeping his friends (especially his “Tealie-Wealie-Pop”) totally safe, and he loves that Mr. Squishypants marches to the beat of his own (booger-pickin’) drum and doesn’t care if people think it’s not that hot. But what he REALLY loves is all the fun he has with new stunt crew of friends and hopes that one day, they’ll the talk of the Hemka world (If Purple doesn’t “accidentally” kill them, first!)!

Gerald Jerome “Mr.” Squishypants Cleverson-Stuntly: The Unofficial Mascot

Likes: Plantnanas, Picking his nose, then flinging his boogers, Huggin’, warm gentle Huggin’

Hates: Baths, Itchy underwear rashes, The stank of rotten fruit, especially rotten Plantnanas

Last Famous Words: “Ook-Ahh-Ahh-Ooooooook!”

Job: Unofficial Mascot/Pet/Supply Scavenger of the S.E.M.S.T.

Hometown: Grassy Grotto

Slooth-wala Powers: Tummy Pouch for storing stuff, Elastic Tongue, Powerful Blowhole on head, Cotton-ball tail that turns into a long skinny tail, Giant Cheeks for storing leftover food, Flappy Skin-like Gliders underneath arms for gliding and wonderful sense of smelling stuff out

Signature Special Move: Slooth-wala-nado Spin!

Fun Fact: He has a prized collection of picked booger shaped like Hemkas in his hammock. Gross! But impressive!

Info: Born in the beautiful jungle of Grassy Grotto, Mr. Squishypants was used to living a beautiful life, swinging on vines and eating Plantnanas with all the other Slooth-walas who enjoy living the simple jungle life, until the day he got rescued by Lavender’s Mom and Purple’s Step-Mom, Rose, from a freak forest fire, and been good friends with his owners, Purple and Lavender, ever since. He still wears the underwear Purple’s Dad and Lavender’s Step-Dad, Peach, made for him.

Despite the fact that he’s the only S.E.M.S.T. member who speaks in Monkey sounds and doesn’t speak English like most Hemkas, this Slooth-wala sure has a way with words and has cuteness of a Slooth, the claws of a Koala, and stretchy tongue of a Chameleon, the tail of a Spidermonkey with a cotton ball like tail of a bunny rabbit at the end, the cheeks of a Chipmunk, the flappy skin-like glider of a Flying Squirrel, the nose of a Bloodhound, the pouch of a Kangaroo and the blowhole of a Bottlenose Dolphin, making him a Slooth-wala of many talents.

Purple and Lavender are extremely overprotective of their pet Slooth-wala, because they both love him so much, which for the Slooth-wala, can be make them a little overbearing, but Mr. Squishypants’ just happy to be a part of Purple’s stunt team, because all he has to do is bring whatever his Hemka buddies need. Need a ramp shaped like a spoon? No worries. Need some cubes to build a statue? He’s got it. Need a pair of twin turbo rocket engines made of lava? Mr. Squishypants. Has. Got. You. He really is a Sooth-wala of many talents!

COOKIN' UP SOME LOVE with

PINK & BLUE NEMKA

Hosted live from the kitchen of the 1# diner for Hemkas and Slooth-walas, The Brownie Hut: Home of the Lunaverse's best Brownies ever, it's the cooking show where best friends and polar opposites, the cute and bubbly but easily distracted Pink and the weepy and allergenic but somehow more responsible and focused Blue teach you how to make delicious dishes, like Brownies Mix Swirl Cake, Lunar Mooncake Smoothies, or even Chocolate Chip Donuts dipped in pure Caramel Coating, yum! But due to either Pink's cluelessness or Blue's many allergies, but usually both, things always get a little chaotic in the kitchen in each 3 minute episode. And yet, somehow everything goes well for the two Hemka Chef hosts, as the recipe always ends up the same: delicious! Even with a destroyed kitchen (which happens a lot, when you think about it).

Pinkthus “Pink” Jollicute Lovensmooch: The Cutest Chef

Likes: Friendship, Lil’ Blue, especially when she’s hugging him, or just hugging in general, Cooking/Baking

Hates: Big confusing words, Seeing her co-chef Lil’ Blue sad (and not in a good way), Not hugging people, especially Lil’ Blue

Favorite Pet Flower: Percy

Job: Jr. Chef of The Brownie Hut

Hometown: Cuddle Cove

Hemka Power: Turning her ears into a thick slimy like substance

Signature Hem-formation: Flower of Friendship!

Fun Fact: She’s cute enough to make Dreadlings go: “Awwwwwwwwwwwww!”

Info: Pink is your typical cute, bubbly, adorably happy-go-lucky girly girl, who so happens to be the top Chef in training at her (freakishly tall and scary) parents’ (whom faces we’ll probably NEVER see) dinner: The Brownie Hut. She might be the most gullible Hemka around, but she is NOT stupid, just incredibly scatterbrained, which is why it’s a good thing she has Lil’ Blue to keep her safe and on task (usually). (And Purple (oddly enough) has a HUGE crush on her, which causes him to do REALLY stupid crazy stuff, but please, do NOT tell any-Hemka, especially Pink, that!)

Bluestone “Lil’ Blue” Quince Teardropper I: The Weepy Chef/Artist

Likes: Pink, Making some art, or turning food into beautiful art, Onions, Crying, Weeping, Sobbing, Wimpering, Sulking, etc.

Hates: His allergies, Pollen, Seeing Pink not in her usual really good mood

Name of stuffed teddy/tissue dispenser: Mr. Teddybottom

Job: Assistant Jr. Chef of The Brownie Hut

Hometown: Watery Wallows

Hemka Power: Literally crying out a stream of water from his eyes

Signature Hem-formation: Water Hose of Weepiness

Fun Fact: His sneezes becomes TERRIBLY powerful during allergy season. No, seriously, stand back.

Info: The one thing this emotional little Hemka loves more then a good cry, is his 1# cooking gal pal, Pink, especially since she always knows how to cheer him up. Even if he doesn’t asks her to, yet! Blue, or as most of the Hemkas call him; “Lil’ Blue”, enjoys painting, training to be a great Chef with Pink, like her parents are and snuggling up with his favorite Teddy/Tissue Dispenser; Mr. Teddybottom. Lil’ Blue doesn’t necessarily hates Purple or anything, he just wishes he wasn’t so… well, Purpleish. usually because when he and his stunt team are ‘round, Lil’ Blue’s usually the one who unfortunately gets annoyed and/or covered in bandages, leaving him wondering why he and Pink made the Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team their 1# customers in the first place. Lil’ Blue is also basically allergic to nearly everything and anything, so don’t be so surprised when he sneezes mid-sentence, or blows his non-visible nose, or even sniffles, but at least he ALWAYS says; “Bless me.” when he does.

Hemmeditation
with
Green Hemka

The ONLY least chaotic of all the 7 Hemka Tales Segments and hosted by the chillest Hemka to ever breathe the same air of the Rainbow Hemka, Green Chiller teaches us how to control our emotions with the power of deep breathing, positive thinking, and doing yoga pose (that only a Hemka could do.) Each 4 minute episode offers a new topic of emotional self control and Hemka-itation, which proves that life in Hemka Valley CAN be chill, if you believe, man.

“The Great Wise and Chill” Moonstar “Green” Eclipse Chiller: The Wisest of Wise Guys

Likes: The greenest of Green Tea, Yoga, Giving good (but often confusing) advice, Mother Nature, herself

Hates: Nature Haters, Party Poopers, Litterbugs

Age: 1,000 years younger than the Rainbow Hemka

Amount of chillness: Endless

Hometown: Grassy Grotto

Hemka Power(s): Levitation, Mind Reading and Telekinesis

Signature Hem-formation: Gong of Gratitude

Fun Fact: He knows you were eventually going to read his character description, soon enough.

Info: As the only Hemka closest to the Rainbow Hemka’s Age, Green Chiller has seen it all and done it all so nothing usually doesn’t faze him, at all. When a Hemka or Slooth-wala is stumped, they come to Lime’s oldest (and wisest) cousin, who not only knows that mythical creatures actually exist, but is also good bingo night pals with them, for some classic wise Green Hemka advice, but he prefers to let the the other Hemkas figure out what his advice really means, so they can learn and grow as a better person, like a real good friend, man.

Red Hemka's
Gardening
Tips (taatJoonskate!)

Each 2 minute episode focuses on Red Stuntly PROUDLY teaches us how to take care of different plants, mostly his prize winning Peppers Plants. Only for him to be interrupted by either a bug, insect or something else going wrong. No wonder Red’s so cheesed off most of the time!

Reginald “Red” Vinegar Stuntly: The Cranky Landlord

Likes: Lavender Stuntly, His prized Pepper Plant garden, especially his biggest one; “Big Bertha”, Being angry

Hates: (Almost) EVERYTHING ELSE!

Least Favorite Hemka: His younger brother; Purple Stuntly (Ugh…)

Job: Landlord of 4356 Hemka Grove

Hometown: Flaming Hotlands

Hemka Power: Literally becoming so heated up, that he becomes immune to fire and lava!

Signature Hem-formation: Dragon Head Of Wrath!

Fun Fact: He’s currently banned from 15 different anger management centers for destroying one too many stuff.

Info: Red Stuntly, Purple’s only brother and Lavender’s only other stepbrother, is always in a bad mood, and for good reason too! The world is just too full of noisy, happy, smiling Hemkas and peppy/dangerous animals just waiting to eat and/or snuggle any Hemka they see, so Red decided to move to Hemka Valley first, to get away from his “dimwitted excuse for a younger brother”; Purple, even though he’d missed the only Hemka he DOES like; Lavender. When he first moved into Hemka Valley, Red bought the only house on 4356 Hemka Grove that can withstand a entire garden of Pepper Plants, and for the first time in his life, he was finally truly happy. But that was BEFORE Purple got himself, his step-bro and pet Slooth-wala banned from Bland-Berg. Jeez, you’d think a Hemka could get a break once a while around here!

Orangemonka
Son

In this dialog-free Looney Tunes inspired 4 minute Segment, after finding an Hemka sized egg, all alone with no parents or care taker, Orange Hemka decides to rise it has his own Son/Daughter, while being forced to learn the ups and downs of parenting and avoiding having his egg child being the Dreadlings' lunch along the way. But don't worry, Orange and his egg Son/Daughter ALWAYS manages escape any kind of danger, completely unaware of how it happened in the first.

Orange Goofballation-Glitterson: The Town Wildcard

Likes: Eating literal trash and garbage, Slurping the frosting from the Brownie Hut dumpster, Burping, Farting, His egg Son/Daughter (He thinks it's a boy… whatever's inside the egg)

Hates: Baths, Wearing suits, Tongue cuts, hold the Hemonade, please!

Name of adopted egg child: Orange Jr.

Job: No-Hemka really knows…

Hometown: Tech-Sproing Town

Hemka Power(s): Digging super fast by spinning around and eating gross stuff without getting sick

Signature Hem-formation: Whirly-Pin of Wackiness!

Fun Fact: Believe or not, he's the adopted cousin of Teal Glitterson (yes, THAT Teal Glitterson)! But no-Hemka but Teal and her family knows that (unfortunately).

Info: You know that one Hemka whose a total enigma, like you just can't figure out what is up with him? Well, every town has one, and Hemka Valley has Orange. A few Hemka knows why he only speaks in gibberish, or why he literally lives inside a trash can or even why would Orange treat his eggy "Son/Daughter" more like it's a living creature then an egg wait to be hatched, but ALL Hemkas know that when Orange is around, things tend to get a little weird (and gross, ew!).

NEWS
NOW!

In each 2 minute episode, Hosted by the cute yet spunky chatterbox, Raspberry Stuntly and her stoic but trusty companion, Emerald Chiller, Hemka News NOW! Delivers nothing but the more craziest, weirdest, wildest and interesting stories, yet. And Raspberry and Emerald are always ready to report from their super cool news blimp; The Hem-News Blimp!

Rachel “Raspberry” Calamari Starmond-Cleverson-Stuntly: The Cute yet Spunky Reporter

Likes: Her cousin “Lavie” and step-cousin “Purpie” and Emerald, Talking, Chatting, Cupcakes, Donuts, Hemka Tokens (Hemka Valley’s version of coins), especially one that look kinda deformed, but not too deformed so it doesn’t look scary, but a little bit funny instead, etc.

Hates: Mimes (the black and white red nosed silent clown dudes), Dirty socks, having a sore throat, or people with sore throats, Frozen eggplants, etc.

Longest Time She Ever Talked: 18 weeks

Job: News Reporter for Hemka News NOW!/Former lead pop star singer of her all female band: The Starbolts

Hometown: Starville

Hemka Power(s): Star Vision and Star Manipulation

Signature Hem-formation: Star-nado of Super Spunkitude!

Fun Fact: She makes a mean Starberry Cluster Cake Pot Pie. Mmm-mm!

Info: To say Raspberry is a chatterbox would be a complete understatement. As Lavender’s cute yet spunky cousin and Purple’s cute yet spunky step-cousin, it’s no wonder why she’s the 1# fan of the Super Extreme Macho Stunt Team who supports her cousin and step-cousin 110% all the way, no matter what! And once she starts talking, good luck trying to get her to keep quiet! She often gets so carried away with her talking that her Co-Reporter/Best Pal; Emerald, usually has to save her from her own chattiness. Only to get a earful of one of his gal pal seemingly endless conversations.

Edward “Emerald” Vanessa Chiller: The Stoic yet Loyal One

Likes: Raspberry, Pies, especially Pumpkin Pies, Reading poetry

Hates: Talking too much, When Raspberry’s in danger (hey, don’t get too sappy about it, alright?), Anything with Lactose

Most Likely to Say: “Yep.”

Job: Co-Reporter for Hemka News NOW!/Former bass guitarist (and only male member) of The Starbolts

Hometown: Slimy Farms

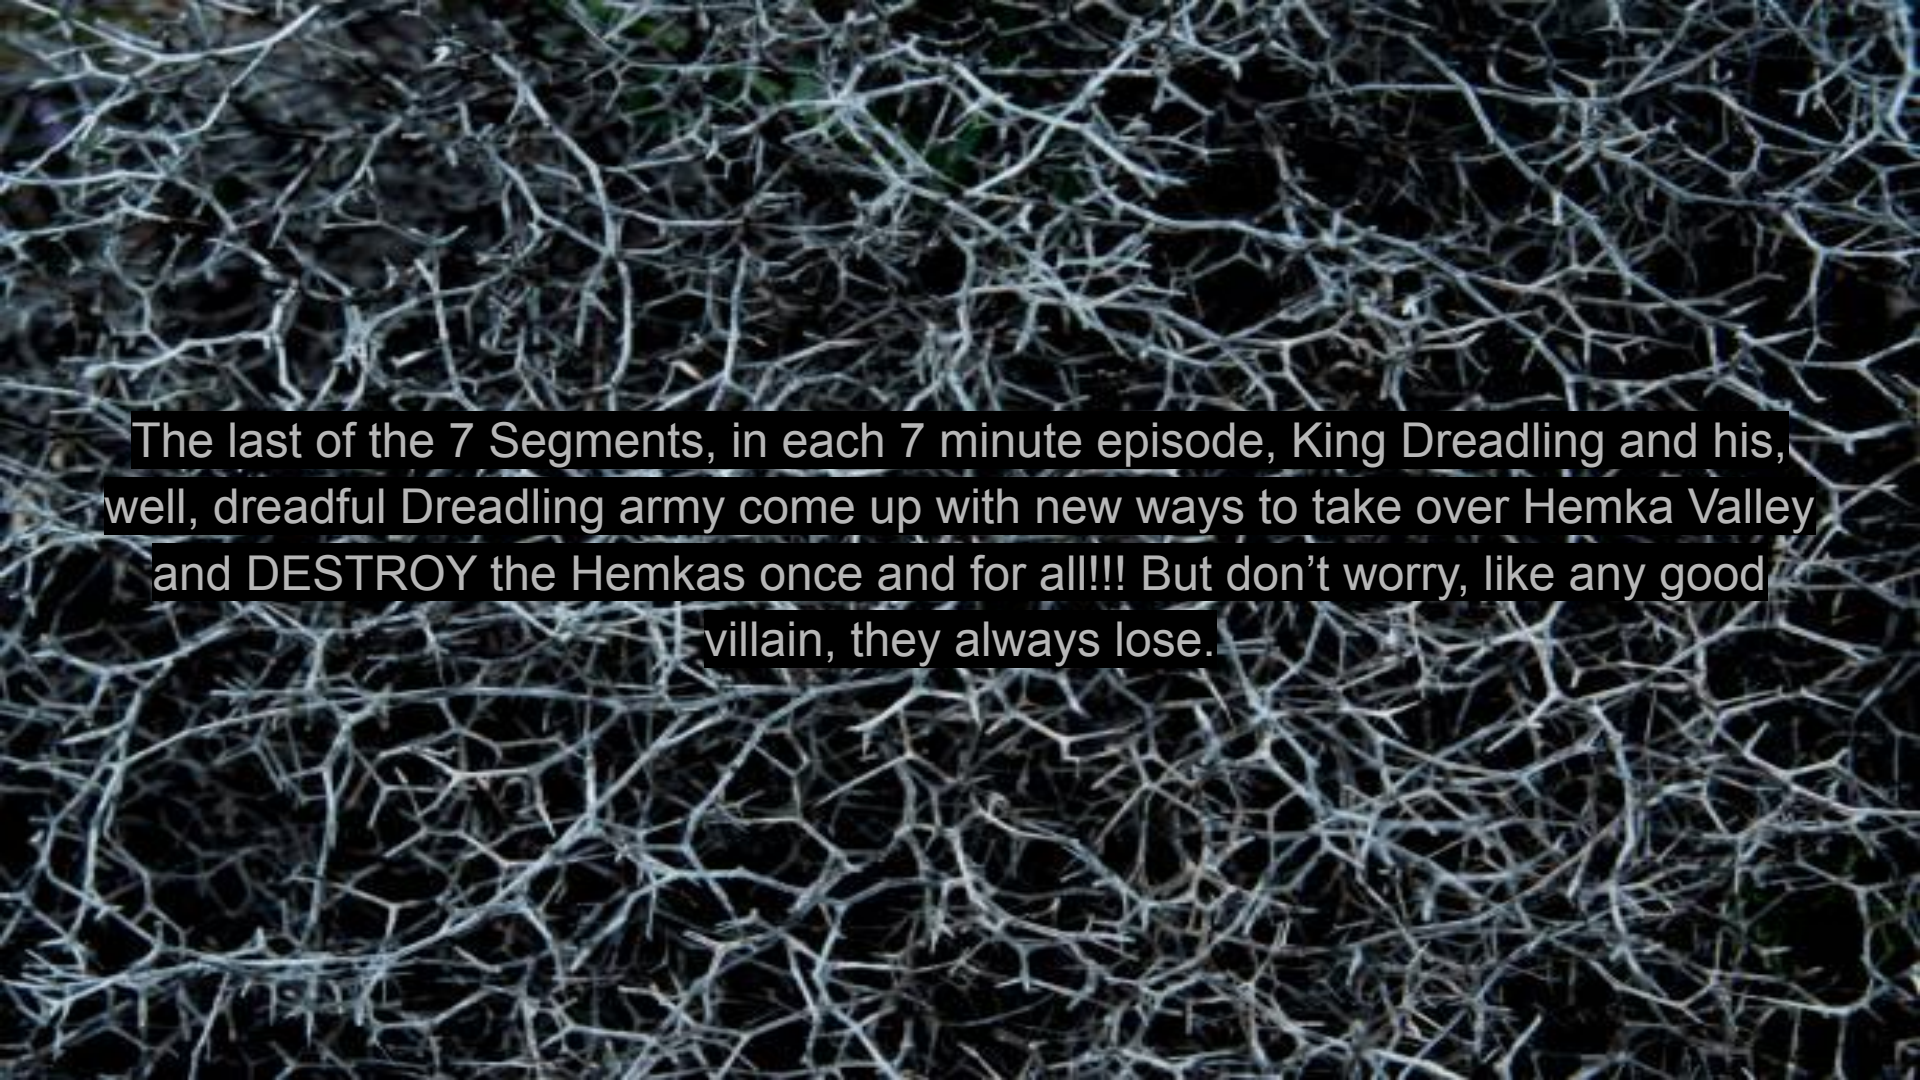
Hemka Power(s): Controlling crops and plants without touch them

Signature Hem-formation: Rolling Barrel of Bitterness

Fun Fact: He’s lactose intolerant.

Info: Green’s twin brother and Lime’s other cousin, Emerald, is the one who does all the hard work and so called heavy lifting for Hemka News NOW! When he’s not being the stoic and (probably) emotional-less yet loveable Co-Reporter/Cameraman/Editor/Assistant News Finder/Assistant Director, he enjoys a nice quiet time reading some empowering poetry and eating a warm slice of pumpkin pie. But oddly enough, Emerald actually gets jealous SUPER easily (he just doesn’t like show or admit it, ya’ know?), especially when it comes to Raspberry, but thanks to his favorite Hemka News NOW! Reporter bestie, he’s learning how to proud instead of “mad jelly” of other Hemkas, proudly.

DREADFULLY
TALES



The last of the 7 Segments, in each 7 minute episode, King Dreadling and his, well, dreadful Dreadling army come up with new ways to take over Hemka Valley and DESTROY the Hemkas once and for all!!! But don’t worry, like any good villain, they always lose.

King Rubert Ivan Dreadling VX & The Dreadlings: The Main Villains!

Likes: Evil, Scheming up new plans to rule Hemka Valley, the taste of Hemkas named Lime Chiller

Hates: Hemkas, Slooth-walas, Goody two-shoe heroics

1# Dream: Taking over Hemka Valley and turn it into Dreadlingtopia!

Job: Evil King and Hench-Minions

Hometown: The Forbidden Dreadling Forest, formerly known as Black Thorn Cliffs

Dreading Powers: Red: Fiery Powers, Purple: Disappearing and Reappearing in a poof, and duplication, Pink: Evil Drilling Ears, Blue: Lightning Control, Green: Turning into an acid puddle and spewing toxic acid, gross!

King Dreadling's Signature Staff Spell: Black Thunder Strike of DOOM!!!

Fun Fact: They HATE living in the Forbidden Dreadling Forest.

Info: Once known as the Black Elder Hemka, long ago, he used to be a proud and humble member of the very first Hemkas tribe ever to exist; The Elder Hemkas. but when he saw the power of the Crystal Moonstone, he got greedy with power and accidentally created the Big Bad, who sucked him like a slushie inside itself! Sad that they lost their friend, the Elder Hemkas used all the power they had to banish the Big Bad away for good, before splitting up to prevent it from happening ever again. But little did they know, the Big Bad created a new kind of Alterlings to help it spread terror around the Lunaverse. The evil kind. The kind that should NOT exist at all: THE DREADLINGS!!!!!!

After the first Dreadling, the first KING Dreadling, that is, was born and found out about his evil legacy, the Big Bad created more colorful Dreadlings, each with his/her own unique power, to help their newly crowned King spread the power of the Big Bad around, starting with Planet Hemka! But with each new generation of Dreadling Kings, they all got beaten by the Legendary Rainbow Hemka, until they retried for a simpler life.

Enter: King Rubert Dreadling the 15th, a tyrannical ruler with an EVIL iron fist, no, seriously! He made his nephew, Quinceworth Dreadling, build him a mech suit with arms and 6 creepy crawly legs so he can use his Staff of Pure Evilness™ to stir his pot filled with 100% Dreadling drool and mucky water (to spy on those "Disgustingly Sweet" Hemkas, and make his famous "Turn Hemkas into Dreadling Soup"!), use one of his many, and we do mean MANY, magic spells, and occasionally punish those idiotic Dreadful Hench-Minions of his. But he mostly spends his days hoping that one day, he'll actually win and turn Hemka Valley into Dreadlingtopia; the 1# evil Dreadling destination hotspot! Can't those Hemkas understand that Dreadling have dreams too?!

Quinceworth Vileson-Dreadling: The Not-So-Evil Inventor

Likes: Inventing, Building, Fancy hors d'oeuvre

Hates: Hemkas, Getting hurt, seeing his Dreadling family displeased

1# Dream: Helping his uncle take over Hemka Valley and turn it into Dreadlingtopia!

Job: King Dreadling's right hand(?) man

Hometown: The Forbidden Dreadling Forest, formerly known as Black Thorn Cliffs

Favorite Dreadling Invention: His uncle's cool yet evil Mech Suit

Dreadling IQ Level: 250%

Fun Fact: He and his Uncle are the only main Dreadling who can speak English. All of the Dreadling Hench-Minions can only speak in snarls, growls and gibberish, EVIL gibberish.

Info: He might be the weak link and least evil of all the Dreadlings, and he may have trouble being the viscous and diabolical Co-Leader he dreams of being, but Quinceworth IS the smartest member of the Dreadlings and most polite too, meaning he's unfortunately responsible for making all the inventions his uncle uses to not only infuse them with his evil magic, but also come up with new ways to destroy those "shapeshifting freaks"; the Hemkas, once and for all.

The Rainbow Hemka: The One and Only!

Likes: Everything the Hemkas like

Hates: Everything the Dreadlings like

Age: 1,000 years older than Green Chiller

Job: Living Mythical Creature/The sole reason the Lunaverse exists

Hometown: The area where Lunaverse was born

Hemka Power(s): Too many to even begin to count

Signature Hem-formation: Moonflower of Moodiness!

Fun Fact: They are the first Hemka ever to exist

Info: Known as the very first living (Transgender) Alterling ever to exist, they were responsible for creating the Moons, Stars and even Planets! They like to stroll around Hemka forest, where other Hemkas can barely see them just to mess with them, but they only come out from hiding when the Hemkas REALLY hopelessly need them to help, and they do a pretty good job helping too!

Settings

Hemka Valley: Our main setting, ruled by the scatterbrained yet loyal “old school” Hemka Mayor; Mayor Brown, and filled with way too many Hemkas and Dreadlings, plus a super cute Slooth-wala! This is the place where most of our segments take place. Especially the “S.E.M.S.T. HQ of Awesomeness”! Okay, fine, so it’s just Purple and Lavender’s house at 4356 Hemka Grove, and it, like the rest of Hemka Valley, often gets destroyed, and sure, it has a funny smell that only a Stuntly could get used to, but look, it’s 2 dudes and a Slooth-wala living together, okay? They’re trying their best.

Bland-Berg: The hometown of our 3 main Stunlies. When either Purple, Lavender or Mr. Squishypants remembers a moment there, we get a flashback to their past life.

The Forbidden Dreadling Forest: It used to be called Black Thorn Cliffs, before the Dreadlings took over, now it’s a forbidden forest filled with Dreadlings, and they HATE it! Why else do you think they wanna take over Hemka Valley in the first place?

Flaming Hotlands: Filled with nothing but volcanic activity and steaming hot lava geysers, this the perfect for any-Hemka looking forward to taking the heat, sizzling!

Tech-Sproing Town: A hi-tech clockwork town filled with bouncy giant literal springs and steamwork nonsense.

Danger Peak Zone: Rocket Machopants’ hometown filled with more safety hazards than you could dream of. And you thought Bravery Ridge was crazy dangerous!

Lightweight Desert: A desert like Egyptian valley so sunny, even the cactuses wear Moonscreen!

Prickle Woods: A forest like city with tree way high up so they Prickle Bushes below can’t hurt you, yeouch!

Grassy Grotto: A grotto with so much plant life, peace, love and harmony, it’s no wonder the Hippies love it here.

Slimy Farms: The amount of edible slime might seem gross, but the crops that instantly grows when in contact with it, is so worth the mess, you might wanna bring a napkin or 2.

Crystal Mountain-City: Giant diamonds, gems, jewels and gem makes up the buildings of this beauty and diva filled civilization, bling!

Watery Wallows: Imagine a town that’s 90% water, 10% land and mostly sailors, pirate and Hemkas in ships and subs, and it ALWAYS rains nonstop. That’s Watery Wallows in a nutshell.

Techtopia: A futuristic utopia filled with nothing with hi-tech machinery and super genius Hemkas.

Bravery Ridge: Purple just DESPERATELY wishes that he was born in the one place where being brave is that only way to survive.

Starville: Where Hemka Pop Stars ride in star themed rides in this star themed amusement park, OMStars!

Cuddle Cove: The cutest, sweetest, bubbliest and snuggliest village in all of Planet Hemka, with free endless hugs, too!

Don’t Even Think About It Island: This place is so dangerous, that we’re not allowed to tell you anything else, thankfully…

MT. Hemka: The two white ears on Planet Hemka make up the coldest region of the birthplace of Hemkas, brrrrrr!

The First 5 of many Episodes!

01: Black Holey-Moley!/Swirl-n-Twirl Frosting Cupcakes/Meteor Storm/Orange Jr.: Desperate to end his “Stunter Block”, Lavender makes a Miniature Black Hole to help his step-bro, Purple, come up with the perfect 50th stunt. Which gets crazy when Holey the Miniature Black Hole goes crazy and starts sucking everything up! Then, Pink and Lil’ Blue shows you how to make Swirl-n-Twirl Frosting Cupcakes. Raspberry and Emerald reports that a freak Meteor Storm might hit Hemka Valley, but no-Hemka believes them! And lastly, we find out how Orange met Orange Jr. and rescued him/her from the Dreadlings.

02: Doing The Pretzel Twist/Fly/Snot a Thang/Crowned Achievement: Green teaches us how to do The Pretzel Twist. Then Red, tries to stop a Fly from ruining his Pepper Garden! Lime is totally sick and his super sonic sneezes are destroying stuff! Can the S.E.M.S.T cure him before he sneezes Planet Hemka off the map? Lastly, King Dreadling loses his crown and non of the Dreadlings recognizes him at all!

03: Flood/Surf and Turf Fruit Platter/The Floating Flochi/Stuck to ya’!: Raspberry and Emerald talk about a flood destroying Hemka Valley, while avoiding the flood itself. Then, Pink struggles to help Lil’ Blue make a Surf and Turf Fruit Platter when she accidentally floods the Brownie Hut! Green shows us how to The Floating Flochi. Lastly, after a freak “Bubblegum Bubble Bounce-tasic” Stunt incident, Teal’s gum gets stuck to her and Purple, back to back! And the two struggles to get unstuck. Any-Hemka got any Screamnut Butter?

04:Pink’s Dreadful Buddy/A Flower for Pink/Buzzsting/The Popping Flower: Pink befriends one of the Dreadlings (the Blue one), and King Dreadling and Quinceworth tries (and tries and tries) to rescue him! Then, hoping for a kiss from her, Purple gives Pink the most beautiful flower ever, and she loves it! Too bad it’s actually a Hemka-Eating Mariplaid. Red desperately tries to get rid of a speedy Buzzsting before it eats his Peppers. Lastly, Green shows us how to do The Popping Flower.

05: Slooth-Nana Cream Pie/Chilled Out/Slime-wave/Bucket Full o’ Stuntly: Lil’ Blue has trouble stopping Mr. Squishypants from eating the Slooth-Nana Cream Pie while Pink tries to make it without him (no, we don’t mean the Slooth-wala). Then, Orange tries to keep his egg child warm during a chilly night. Raspberry and Emerald talk about a Slime-wave covering Hemka Valley in, you guessed it; SLIME! Lastly, refusing to believe that Dreading are real, Purple and Lavender literally melts into a Puddle of depression, thinking it’s SO their fault that the Dreadlings captured their beloved pet Slooth-wala! So Teal, Lime and Yellow go to the Forbidden Dreadling Forest to rescue the Slooth-wala from the evil King Dreadling’s grip of doom!
